22 Plaintiff, Chapter 7 Trustee, Edward M. Burr (the "Trustee"), by and through his 23 counsel, Holly E. Estes, Esq., of Estes Law, P.C., hereby files his opposition to the 24 Disputed Lien Claimants' Countermotion for Judgement on the Pleadings or, in the 25 Alternative, Motion for Summary Judgement Against all Defendants on Claims 1-4 and 6, 26 and Request for Court to Direct Entry of Final Judgement [DE 45] (the 27 "Countermotion"). This opposition is based upon the following memorandum of points 28 and authorities, the Trustee's Statement of Undisputed Facts [DE 21], the statement of

1 disputed facts filed in support hereof and filed herewith, the pleadings and papers on file
 2 in this case, and any oral argument the Court will permit at the hearing hereon.

3 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

4 A. Introduction.

5 The facts are largely undisputed. The Trustee's Motion and the Disputed Lien
 6 Claimants' Counter motion present three basic questions:

7 (A) whether NRS 17.150 requires that a judgement creditor comply with NRS
 8 17.150 (2) through (4) in order to create a valid judgement lien on real property;

9 (B) if NRS 17.150 (4) is required to create a valid judgement lien on real property, 10 is strict compliance or substantial compliance required; and

11 (C) if substantial and not strict compliance with NRS 17.150 (4) is required, what 12 constitutes substantial compliance with NRS 17.150(4)?

13 This controversy is purely based upon unsettled state law, and the Nevada
 14 Supreme Court is in the best position to resolve this case to its final conclusion. The 15 basic threshold questions posed by this litigation are ripe for certification to the Nevada 16 Supreme Court pursuant to NRAP 5(a). The Trustee respectfully requests that the 17 Bankruptcy Court consider staying ruling on the Trustee's Motion and Disputed Lien
 18 Claimants' Counter motion and certify the questions pursuant to the draft order attached
 19 hereto as Exhibit "A".

20 B. Argument.

21 1. Certification of These Questions are Appropriate.

22 This adversary was commenced against the Disputed Lien Claimants on the 23 premise that their recorded judgements are invalid as liens on the estates's Property or the 24 proceeds from the sale of the Property due to Disputed Lien Claimants failure to 25 contemporaneously record the affidavit of judgement with the information required by 26 NRS 17.150(4) upon the affiant's personal knowledge. The only issues for resolution are 27 of state law. Federal courts are bound by the pronouncements of the state's highest court 28 on applicable state law. Davis v. Metro Productions, Inc., 885 F.2d 515, 524 (9th Cir.

1 1989). However, the decisions of Nevada appellate courts provide no controlling
 2 precedent on these issues of purely state law. "Only a state supreme court can provide 3 what we can be assured are 'correct' answers to state law questions, because a state's 4 highest court is the one true and final arbiter of state law. . . . When we write to a state
 5 law issue, we write in faint and disappearing ink: what we write does not bind any state 6 court judge, and . . . once the state supreme court speaks the effect of anything we have 7 written vanishes like the proverbial bat in daylight, only faster." Sultenfuss v. Snow, 35
 8 F.3d 1494, 1504 (11th Cir. 1994) (Carnes, J., dissenting).

9 Here, the Disputed Lien Claimants' point the Court to a recent federal district court
 10 decision interpreting Nevada law. Sphere, LLC v. Pawnee Leasing Corp., 2023 U.S.
 11 Dist. LEXIS 207350. However, the Bankruptcy Court "must adhere to state court 12 decisions—not federal court decisions—as the authoritative interpretation of state law."
 13 Daniel v. Ford Motor Co., 806 F.3d 1217, 1223 (9th Cir. 2015).

14 The most direct and certain conclusion of this case is by certifying the question to 15 the State's highest court. If the Court does not do so, this case is likely to result in 16 appeals with the next court "guessing" what the Nevada Supreme Court would do. The 17 Trustee believes that applying ordinary principles of statutory interpretation - NRS 17.150
 18 should be read as a whole so as not to render NRS 17.150(4) meaningless, or without 19 effect. If the affidavit of judgement is not required to be contemporaneously recorded 20 with the judgement for the purpose of creating a judgement lien on property of the 21 judgement debtor, then why does the statute say it does?

22 Nev. R. App. P. 5(a) provides in relevant part:

23 (a) Power to Answer. The Supreme Court may answer questions of law certified
 24 to it by the Supreme Court of the United States, a Court of Appeals of the United States
 25 or of the District of Columbia, a United States District Court, or a United States
 26 Bankruptcy Court when requested by the certifying court, if there are involved in any 27 proceeding before those courts questions of law of this state which may be determinative 28 of the cause then pending in the certifying court and as to which it appears to the certifying court there is no controlling precedent in the decisions of the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals of this state.

29 ///

1 The Nevada Supreme Court instructs that its assistance in answering such 2 questions is appropriate “when its answers may “be determinative” of part of the federal 3 case, there is no controlling [state] precedent, and the answer will help settle important
 4 questions of law.” Volvo Cars of N. Am., Inc. v. Ricci, 122 Nev. 746, 751, 137 P.3d 1161,
 5 1164 (2006). It is submitted that certification is especially appropriate here, where there is 6 Nevada Supreme Court precedent which, by virtue of being unpublished, is not 7 “controlling,” and adherence to such non-controlling precedent would completely resolve 8 the case.

9 The procedures for certifying a question to the Nevada Supreme Court are set forth
 10 in Nev.R.App.P. (5)(b)-(d):

11 (b) Method of Invoking. This Rule may be invoked by an order of any of the 12 courts referred to in Rule 5(a) upon the court's own motion or upon the motion 13 of any party to the cause.

14 (c) Contents of Certification Order. A certification order shall set forth:

15 (1) The questions of law to be answered;
 16 (2) A statement of all facts relevant to the questions certified;
 17 (3) The nature of the controversy in which the questions arose;
 18 (4) A designation of the party or parties who will be the appellant(s) and the 19 party or parties who will be the respondent(s) in the Supreme Court;
 20 (5) The names and addresses of counsel for the appellant and respondent; and 21 (6) Any other matters that the certifying court deems relevant to a 22 determination of the questions certified.

23 (d) Preparation of Certification Order. The certification order shall be 24 prepared by the certifying court, signed by the judge presiding at the hearing, 25 and forwarded to the Supreme Court by the clerk of the certifying court under 26 its official seal. The Supreme Court may require the original or copies of all or 27 of any portion of the record before the certifying court to be filed with the 28 certification order, if, in the opinion of the Supreme Court, the record or portion thereof may be necessary in answering the questions.

29 A draft order conforming to these requirements is attached hereto as Exhibit “A”.

2. The Trustee Incorporates His Arguments By Reference

30 The Chapter 7 Trustee hereby incorporates his arguments made in his Motion for 31 Judgement on the Pleadings or, in the alternative, Motion for Summary Judgement against 32 all Defendants on Claims 1-4 and 6, and Request for Court to Direct Entry of Final 33 Judgement [DE 20] and Reply to the Disputed Lien Claimants’ Joint Opposition to 34 Trustee’s Motion for Judgement on the Pleadings or, in the Alternative, Motion for 35 Summary Judgement Against all Defendants on Claims 1-4 and 6, and Request for Court

1 to Direct Entry of Final Judgement [DE 64] as if set forth herein in full.

2 3. Reason and Public Policy Favor the Trustee's Position.

3 Disputed Lien Claimants' that NRS 17.150(4) is not necessary to create a valid
 4 judgement lien on the property of a judgement debtor is contrary to reason, common sense
 5 and public policy. The "court first looks to the plain language of the statute." A.F. Constr.
 6 Co., 118 Nev. at 703, 56 P.3d at 890 (citing Salas v. Allstate Rent-A-Car, Inc., 116 Nev.
 7 1165, 1168, 14 P.3d 511, 513-14 (2000)). "[I]f the statutory language . . . fails to address
 8 the issue, this court construes the statute according to that which 'reason and public policy 9 would indicate the legislature intended.'" A.F. Constr. Co., 118 Nev. at 703, 56 P.3d at 10 890 (quoting State, Dep't Mtr. Vehicles v. Vezeris, 102 Nev. 232, 236, 720 P.2d 1208, 11 1211 (1986)).

12 The Trustee has fully laid out his arguments regarding the plain reading of the 13 statute and its heading, and the legislative intent. Reason and public policy also support
 14 the Trustee's position that the affidavit of judgement is required to be contemporaneously
 15 recorded along with the judgement in order to create a valid judgement lien on a 16 judgement debtor's property. Public policy and reason provide that the burden should be 17 on the judgement creditor who wishes to be paid on his judgement, and not borne on the 18 innocent improperly identified property owner or the innocent title company overseeing 19 an escrow. In fact, it was the title companies who went to the legislature identifying this 20 issue and surely wishing to absolve themselves of liability for regular instances of 21 misidentification regarding judgement debtors. This provision was enacted by the 22 legislature to protect the public, and put a very small additional requirement on a 23 judgement creditor. Reason and public policy favor that the affidavit of judgement
 24 required by NRS 17.150(4) is required.

25 ///

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

CONCLUSION

2 WHEREFORE, the Trustee requests that this Court enter a final judgement in its 3 favor on claims 1-4 and 6, and strongly consider certifying the identified questions to the 4 Nevada Supreme Court in order to bring this case to its final conclusion and obtain the 5 authoritative court's opinion on how the statute should be read.

26 ORDER CERTIFYING QUESTIONS OF STATE LAW TO THE
NEVADA SUPREME COURT PURSUANT NEV. R. APP. P. 5
27
28

1 This Court having reviewed and considered the Motion for Judgement on the 2 Pleadings or, in the Alternative, Motion for Summary Judgement Against all Defendants
 3 on Claims 1-4 and 6, and Request for Court to Direct Entry of Final Judgement [DE 20], 4 the Disputed Lien Claimants' Countermotion for Judgement on the Pleadings or, in the 5 Alternative, Motion for Summary Judgement Against Trustee on Claims 1-4 and 6, and 6 Request for Court to Direct Entry of Final Judgement [DE 45] and the pleadings filed and 7 related thereto, as well as the Chapter 7 Trustee's request for certification of questions of 8 state law to the Nevada Supreme Court, pursuant to Nev. R. App. P. 5, and for good cause
 9 appearing, the request for certification is hereby GRANTED.

10 In accord with the requirements of Rule 5 of the Nevada Rules of Appellate 11 Procedure, Certification of Questions of Law, the Court sets forth the following:

12 1. The questions of state law to be answered:

- 13 a. whether NRS 17.150 requires that a judgement creditor comply with 14 NRS 17.150 (2) through (4) in order to create a valid judgement lien on real property?;
- 15 b. if NRS 17.150 (4) is required to create a valid judgement lien on real 16 property, is strict compliance or substantial compliance required?; and
- 17 c. if substantial and not strict compliance with NRS 17.150 (4) is 18 required, what constitutes substantial compliance with NRS 17.150(4)?

19 2. The facts relevant to the questions certified are as follows:

- 20 a. creditors obtained judgements against the debtor.
- 21 b. creditors recorded their judgements with the Washoe County
 22 Recorder consistent with NRS 17.150(2).
- 23 c. creditors did not record an affidavit of judgement pursuant to NRS 24 17.150(4).
- 25 d. creditors recorded documents do provide the judgement debtor's first 26 and last name.
- 27 e. one judgement creditor's recorded documents contain the judgement 28 debtor's middle initial in addition to his first and last name.

- 1 f. one judgement creditor's recorded documents contain the judgement
- 2 debtor's middle name in addition to his first and last name.
- 3 g. some of the judgement creditors recorded documents include an
- 4 APN, which we now know is the APN of real property owned by the
- 5 judgement debtor at the time the judgement was recorded.
- 6 h. one judgement creditor described the debtor's "last known address"
- 7 as 223 Pelton Way, Incline Village, Nevada, which is the property
- 8 upon which it is now claiming a valid judgement lien.

9 3. This question arose in connection with an adversary proceeding between the 10 Chapter 7 Trustee of the judgement debtor's bankruptcy case estate, and the alleged 11 judgment lien creditors who claim to hold valid judgement liens on the bankruptcy case
12 estate's property, and the proceeds from the sale thereof. The Trustee sought summary 13 judgement that the judgement creditors do not have a valid judgement liens and 14 alternatively sought certification of this question of state law to the Nevada Supreme 15 Court. See Nev. R. App. P. 5(c)(3).

16 4. The Trustee will be the Appellant, and the disputed lien claimants will be 17 the Respondent in the certification proceeding before the Nevada Supreme Court. See 18 Nev. R. App. P. 5(c)(4).

19 5. The Trustee is represented by Holly E. Estes, Esq., of Estes Law, P.C., 605
20 Forest Street, Reno, Nevada 89509; Steven and Terre Baldwin, Big Water Investments, 21 LLC, and Kevin Horowitz, sole proprietor of St. Helena Construction Company are 22 represented by L. Edward Humphrey, Esq., of Humphrey O'Rourke PLLC, 201 W.
23 Liberty Street, Ste. 350, Reno, Nevada 89501; Rock & Rose, Inc., is represented by Louis
24 M. Bubala, Esq., of Kaempfer Crowell, 50 W. Liberty Street, Ste. 1100, Reno, Nevada
25 89501; and Woodburn and Wedge is represented by Seth J. Adams, Esq., of Woodburn
26 and Wedge, 6100 Niel Rd., Ste. 500, Reno, Nevada 89511. See Nev. R. App. P. 5(c)(5).

27 IT IS SO ORDERED.
